

WILLIAM STEVENS - 16.

Q. Did you hear a car after you went to bed?

A. No.

Q. Did you hear a car anywhere around or pass after you returned from the church?

A. No.

Q. Do you remember what sort of shirt you had on?

A. As far as I can tell, one like I have on now, a stiff bosom shirt. In the summer time I wear colored shirts. In the summer.

Q. It was fairly warm that Thursday?

A. Yes.

Q. And that was sent to the laundry?

A. No, we have all our laundry done at the house.

Q. You have a laundress at home?

A. Yes.

Q. William, do you know anything about who may have killed Mr. Hall?

A. Mr. Beekan, I have as much knowledge as that radiator.

Q. You know nothing about it?

A. Not a bit. I am up against a stone wall.

Q. Have you any suspicion?

A. No, I have no suspicion.

Q. Not to be given out I mean. Is there anybody from ² anything you know, might have heard, desired to reap some revenge on him?

A. As far as I know he had no enemies in the whole world. I could not tell you of a person in the whole world who would want to kill him.

Q. Not a normal person, but anybody who might be besides themselves for any reason, who might have some grievance real or imaginary against him?

A. No, I could not tell you. I have no idea.

Q. When did you first learn he had been killed?
